AM Programs

Monday - Friday

9am - 12pm

GENERAL ESL

Improve your English in an integrated skills class covering listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Special attention is given to improving pronunciation, building vocabulary, and understanding grammar. Skills are developed through focus on a variety of current topics and are tested weekly.

INTENSIVE SPEAKING & LISTENING

This class offers the opportunity for intensive practice of speaking and listening skills, with a focus on developing pronunciation and oral grammar skills using authentic material. Oral and written tests are conducted weekly in order to evaluate your progress.

COLLEGE PREPARATION

Develop your academic English skills to a university level in this advanced class. Grow your reading skills using a variety of literary styles and materials, and practice listening to academic lectures. Study key styles of academic writing and learn how to express your ideas verbally through seminar discussions and major presentations.

PM Programs

Monday - Thursday

1pm - 3:30pm

REAL CANADIAN PRONUNCIATION 1

This class offers concentrated practice in recognizing and producing the individual sounds of standard Canadian English. Work closely with your teacher as you learn how to position your mouth in order to speak English more clearly.

REAL CANADIAN PRONUNCIATION 2

Improve your pronunciation with a focus on fluency and comprehension of natural, casual spoken English. One-on-one, face-to-face interaction with your teacher will assist you in the identification of pronunciation errors and the production of more accurate speech.

BUSINESS ENGLISH

This class focusses on essential skill development for contemporary business communication. The program is founded on real-life business activities and aims to help students increase their knowledge of the business world while also developing key business communication skills. Oral and written evaluations take place weekly and are based on contemporary case material.

WRITING

Develop your writing skills as you move from writing basic sentences and paragraphs to academic essays and research papers. This course deals with writing for different purposes and audiences and offers regular feedback from your teacher.

MEDICAL ENGLISH

Welcome to the Canadian Medical field! Build your vocabulary and enhance your confidence as you prepare for effective English communication in the medical field. This course addresses both spoken and written language skills for formal and casual situations.

SPEAKING CLINIC

Develop the practical skills necessary for communication in everyday situations with an emphasis on accuracy and error correction. Let your teacher lead you through guided practice to free speaking in a safe and comfortable environment. Weekly speaking tests assess your ability to use the language learned in class.

COMMUNICATION ARTS

This is an intensive communication class that focuses on the natural, casual usage of spoken English. Build the confidence you need to use real-world language structures and vocabulary outside of the school environment. Weekly speaking tests assess your ability to use your new language skills.
